DEPICTING THE ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

THE CHILHO

P U B L I S H E D B Y T H E

MARYVILLE COLLEGE.

WEAN . 1941

J U N I O R C L A S S O F
MARYVILLE, TENNESSEE

DEDICATION

"... as one having authority ..."

o Dr. William Patton Stevenson, for twenty-three years the pastor of Maryville College, we, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-two, respectfully dedicate the thirty-fifth volume of "The Chilhowean."

Having known his friendly guidance for these few years, we recognize that his service to six college generations is far beyond any slight tribute we thus pay him.

His cheerfulness, his courage, his graciousness have become a part of all who know him. He has shared with us his wisdom and his faith. It may well be said of him, he speaks "as one having authority." For these things, we wish to express here our sincere and grateful appreciation.

VOORHEES CHAPEL

ANDERSON HALL

(Right) Across the site of the old power house. Landscaping is now in progress on this plot, lately the campus eyesore.

BOOK STORE

And Southern Sky

(Left) In the east wall of the Book Store is the campus' most picturesque stained-glass window, forty square feet in size.

McLAIN MEMORIAL HALL

From South Gate

(Right) At present a women's dormitory, plans are to make it a men's dorm upon completion of another building — still on paper.

THAW HALL

Change of Classes

(Below) Newest and busiest building on the Hill, Thaw houses the College Maid Shop in the basement, LaMar Library on the first floor, thirteen class-rooms on the second, space for several other rooms on the unfinished third.

WEST ENTRANCE

THAW PILLARS

VOORHEES CHAPEL

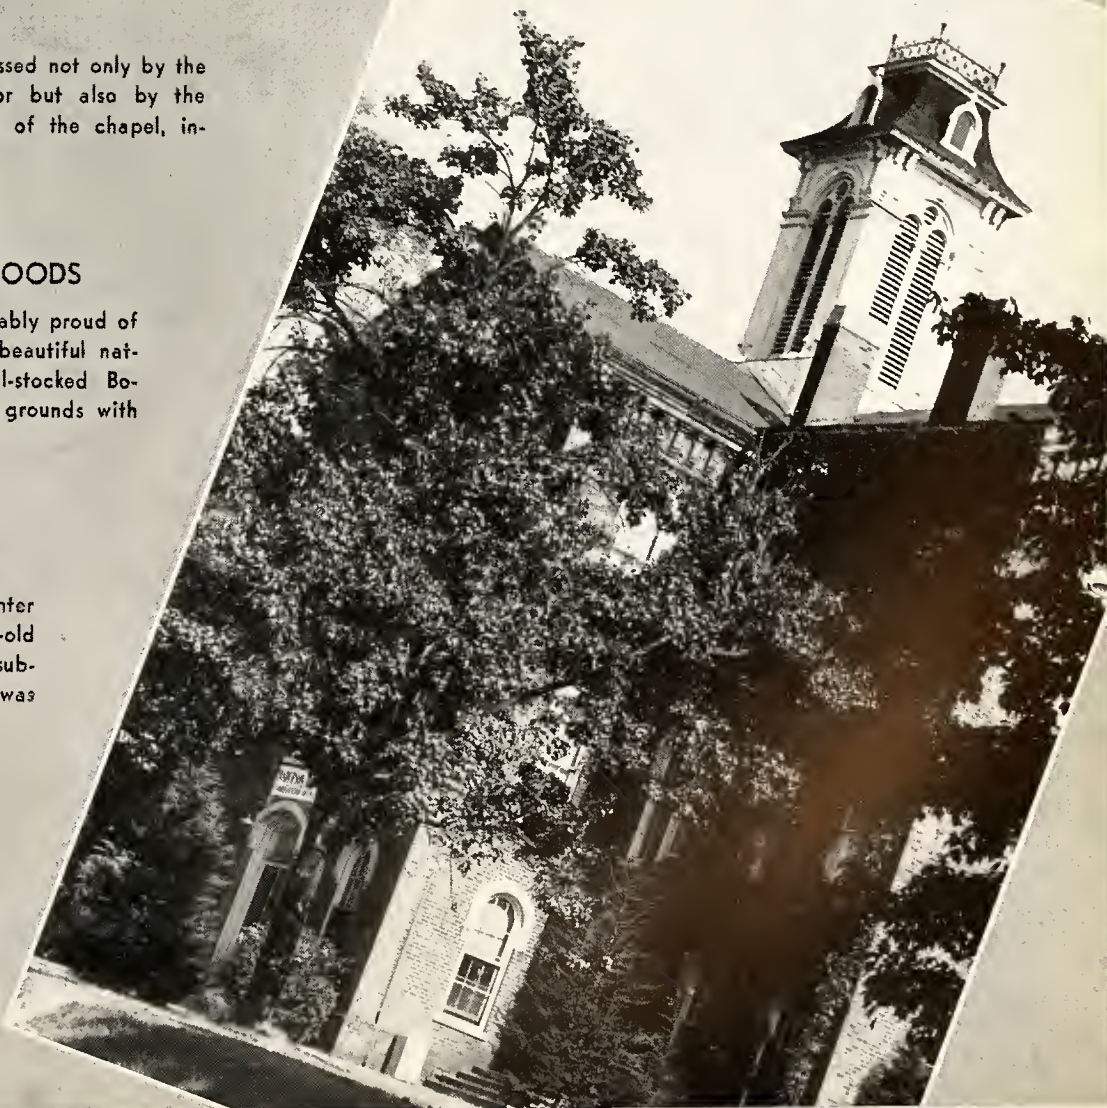

(Above) Visitors are impressed not only by the architecture of the exterior but also by the atmosphere of the interior of the chapel, inspiring in its simplicity.

IN THE COLLEGE WOODS

ANDERSON HALL

(Right) Administrative center of Maryville, seventy-year-old Anderson Hall is still the substantial, useful building it was designed to be.

The PRESIDENT

Completing his tenth year as Maryville College's sixth president, Dr. Ralph Waldo Lloyd can point with pride to his record. During his administration, Maryville has obtained a selective place on the limited list of colleges approved by the Association of American Universities.

Due in part to a ready smile and a cordial personality, and in part to a restless but practical nature, his success in the office is an indication of his capacity for living a full and well-moulded life.

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

Samuel Tyndale Wilson, M.A., D.D., LL.D., Litt.D., has been connected with Maryville College as student, professor, president, and President Emeritus since 1873. Although no longer active in collegiate affairs, the memory of his service has been a moving spirit and an inspirational guidance since his retirement in 1930. Undoubtedly a most revered figure, Dr. Wilson has contributed more to the cause of Christian education than any other single figure in the history of Maryville College.

Following his graduation from Maryville in 1878, he spent two years in the mission field and in 1882, he was called to the College to teach. From that time on he has been closely associated with the institution.

Maryville's class of nineteen hundred and forty-one has created for itself an enviable record. This senior class, in addition to being endowed with several students more outstanding than the rest, boasts a uniformly high level of talented individuals.

Members of the class have done much to contribute to the fame of Maryville College, not only in scholastics, but also in extra-curricular fields. By taking part in musical presentations, forensic activities, dramatic productions, athletic contests, and other representative activities, these students have had a large part in building for this college the high standing it now holds.

One student last year and eleven students this year were chosen from the class of forty-one to represent this college in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

So with this brief pre-view, we present the Senior Class of 1941.

A TRIBUTE TO THE COLLEGE MAID SHOP

"20 years old"

Although woven out of the whole cloth, more like a web of fancy is the story of the creation and growth of the COLLEGE MAID SHOP. It is a story of courage, patience, and perseverance; and not a little luck. For instance, an insect bite was responsible for orders of several thousand uniforms from the General Shoe Corporation in Nashville. After refusing to order, the nurse in charge of purchasing there noticed a red, swollen, finger on the SHOP representative, and insisted on dressing it. Out of gratitude, the agent next day sent a uniform to the nurse who liked it so well that she ordered 2,000 immediately and many thousand more later.

To almost four thousand nurses in government service; to thousands of mill girls who insist on "College Maid" uniforms; to all buyers in every state and in every possession of the United States, the College Maids of the past twenty years are grateful.

To the COLLEGE MAID SHOP, and to Mrs. Kathryn McMurray, whose faith established it and whose continuing loyalty has improved it beyond her dreams, the 1941 Chilhowean says, "Happy Birthday and many happy returns."

Sales Map and Models of U. S. Service Uniforms

VIEWS IN COLLEGE MAID SHOP

"One place where there is always work for the girl who needs more money."

Sales last year . . . $ 41,028.93

payroll last year . . . 10,413.49

Payroll to date . . . 160,381.70

It is interesting to know that one alert business executive has declared that the good-will connected with the copyrighted name, "College Maid," is worth one million dollars in business circles.

NU GAMMA SIGMA

LEADERS

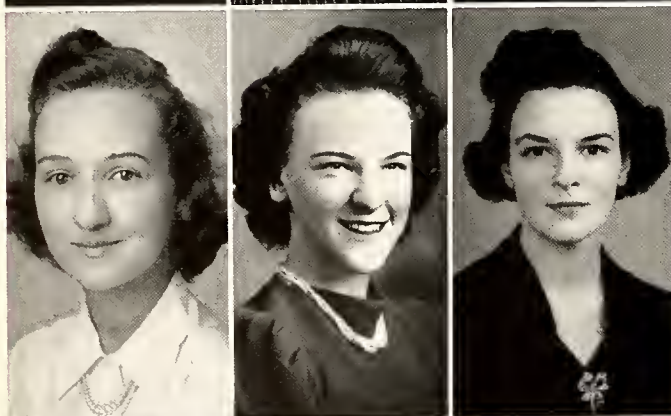

Anne Gammon, Chairman; Lois Ann Alexander, Virginia Margaret Williams, Rose Pinneo, Betty Robinson, Jean Patterson, Marian Magill, Marian Jenkins, Dorothy Barber, Janice Graybeal, Helen Pratt, Martha Moore, Marian Avakian, Jane Metcalf, Marianne Coleman

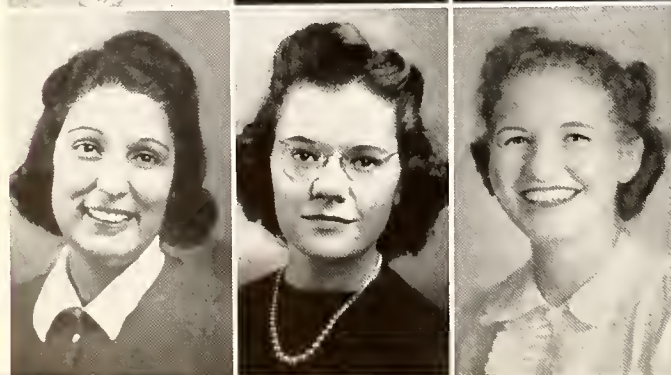

With a sincere belief in the value of the development of college friendships and of character, the Nu Gamma Sigma has been formed on these principles:

- Newness in Thought
- Usefulness in Service
- Growth, both Spiritual and Social
- Appreciation of Beauty and Truth
- Mental Alertness
- Mastery of Problems
- Attitudes of Worth

Each leader finds rich experiences through writing to the new girls during the summer, introducing them to the old students, and in the four Sunday meetings in which ideas with a yet provincial touch are exchanged. The fun of hikes, candy pulls, and a breakfast in the woods are events to be long remembered.

Since 1874, Bainonian has occupied a very prominent place on the Hill. The society has upheld the qualities of leadership, courage, and the high ideals for which it stands. Bainonian Hall is the place of friendly cooperation and fellowship among all.

Bainonian's hospitality was manifested in an old Southern Plantation style during "rush week." Other highlights of the society were sketches and impersonations of the faculty, musicals, a "Gone

With the Wind" program, watermelon cuts, Athenian-Bainonian annual play, candlelight readings, teas, plays—all of which have added to the year's fun.

Bainonians will always remain true to the society as they proudly sing:

"Bainonian! Bainonian!

Deep graven on each heart;
We'll remain unwavering, true,
When we from college part."

Athenian began a progressive year with its annual appearance before the men of the College at the YMCA Pow-Wow in the College Woods. The society presented an original skit.

Early in the fall Athenian recorded one of its programs for future Athenians to hear. The annual "Girl I Left Behind Me" contest reached a new entry number high with forty-three pictures, one modest Athenian entering twenty-three beauties, and another member one bovine. The winner of the contest was presented a ZITHER, which is given by the Society to all of its contest winners.

The musical highlight of the year was the Athenian Little Artist Series with talented musical members of the school participating. A capacity crowd from all of the societies was present in Voorhees Chapel to hear the performance.

One of the most satisfying and enjoyable events was the Athenian Stag Banquet. Edibles were had by all. The dramatic presentation, "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," was the climax program of the year for both Athenian and Bainonian. An excellent performance was presented by a large cast of thirty-five members.

THETA EPSILON

MINUTES OF THE YEAR

Theta Epsilon was called to order by the president, Katharine Bennett, at the formal opening on Saturday, September 28, 1940. This marked the closing of a colorful rush week and the beginning of a pleasant year for Theta.

During initiation week, the pledges participated in a mild initiation under the direction of Kathryn Estes, vice-president. After initiation, the pledges became members at an impressive candlelight ceremony.

Saturday afternoons throughout the year found Theta girls at parties or teas or working on some project, special program, or dramatic presentation.

The program secretaries, Betty Clevenger and Alice Jones, presented a variety of programs featuring guest artists or talent from the faculty or student body.

With the 1941 semester, the Theta gavel was again presented to Katharine Bennett and with the assistance of Margaret Ash, as vice-president, carried on in the traditional Theta manner. Many more interesting programs were presented by Alice Jones and Nan Wood, the program secretaries.

Financially, the treasurers, Lura Mae Laughmiller and Betty Clevenger, reported that Theta has a larger balance than ever before.

In April, Theta and Alpha Sigma worked together to stage "Pure as the Driven Snow," an outstanding dramatic presentation of the year.

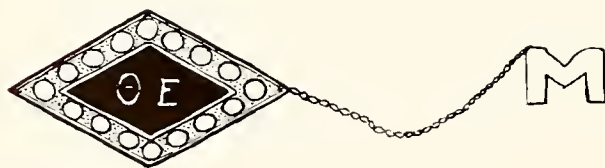

This year's activities will soon be memories, but as each Theta girl leaves Theta Hall for the last time, she passes on to a new girl a sacred thought, the Theta Motto: Si Deus nobiscum, Quis contra nos.

And so the year was closed with the Theta song:

Praises to Theta,
To thee we sing our song;
We hail to Theta,
For thee our hearts will long.

Respectfully submitted,

KATHARINE D. BENNETT, President.
MARGARET ASH.

On Saturday evening, September 14th, Alpha Sigma presented itself to the men of the college at the annual Y. M. C. A. Pow-Wow in the college amphitheater. Continuing throughout the year, its activities have been characterized by high ideals, big accomplishments, and wonderful fellowship. Since 1882, both inside and outside the society hall, Alpha Sigma has occupied a prominent place on the campus and also in the lives of its members.

1940 and 1941 saw such enthusiastic programs as musical jamborees, Ask Me Another, dramatic readings, speakers of local prominence, and a joint splash party with our sister society, Theta Epsilon. The high light of the year was the first annual "Greek Letter Banquet."

Alpha Sigma has not fallen from its high standard, many of its members attaining noble distinctions in all fields, scholarships, forensics, dramatics, journalism, music, and athletics. Alumni of the society have proven their worth on the campus, and will carry on in the world with that same spirit of progressiveness that characterizes their society.

The first musical group heard in the fall when school starts is the College Choir; on Commencement Day the Choir is the last group heard as the Recessional ends. Between these two dates, students from thirteen states and one foreign country comprise the Choir, which is heard every Sunday evening in Vespers, forms the nucleus of all the large choral productions, and makes many trips to neighboring cities for concerts and radio programs. Many requests for programs from more distant points have to be refused because of lack of time and traveling facilities.

The Choir is recognized throughout this section of the South as the outstanding Choral group. Last year's repertoire boasted 87 numbers rendered 157 times. Most of the work is A Capella. Membership in the Choir is based on rigid tryout and punctual attendance.

One of the featured attractions at all college football games is the Band, which is directed by Mr. Ralph Colbert. The Band, led by Drum Major Dudley Moore, Sponsor Jean McCammon, and Scottie, the mascot, gives an excellent drill performance between halves at the games, as well as furnishing music during the games.

Another scheduled appearance of the Band is made Easter morning at the Sunrise Service at the College Amphitheatre.

THE MESSIAH

An hour broadcast over station WROL presented a large part of the Messiah over the air this year. For the past seven years the Messiah has been given by a chorus which consisted of both college students and townspeople. Over two hundred voices were heard at the annual presentation Christmas time. Soloists were Louise Marshall, Ruth Andrews, Samuel Cornelius, and Lynn Birchfiel.

The chorus, accompanied by the Maryville Little Symphony orchestra, was under the direction of Mr. Ralph Colbert.

FOOTBALL

The Highland eleven, completing a colorful career in the Smoky Mountain Conference, maintained their fighting reputation through a successful 1940 season. Under the excellent guidance of Coach Honaker, Coach Davis, and Line Coach Thomas, the Scotties showed superior skill and speed to topple five of the ten opposing teams. Maryville's light squad was typically fighting from behind in each game against superior beef and injury siege.

The sparkling playing of a senior backfield, consisting of Hughes, Honaker, Baird, and Morton, made the 1940 Scotties an imposing opponent. Coach Al Thomas replaced a riddled forewall with freshman talent which will stand the Scotties in good stead next season.

Highlights of the season were many and brilliant. Beginning against Hiwassee, the Scots, resembling the 1939 aerial experts, scored over the brawn of the Tigers on passes from Captain Hughes to Co-Captain Scott Honaker to win their season opener. Against the S. M. C. competition of Cumberland U., the Highlanders, after being confused by the use of a brown pigskin, hugged a regulation white ball to their chest and overcame a two-touchdown lead in the second half to win, 19-18.

Cheerleaders Mary Lew Holmes, Norma Perry, Nan Wood, Bill Sweeney, Bob Mair, and Ben Lynt.

HIGHLIGHTS

Milligan's burly Buffaloes overpowered the diminutive Scotties, 20-6, the following week-end in their march to an undefeated season. Maryville's dogged resistance was rewarded, however, in being one of the few teams to penetrate Milligan's goal territory. Ranking along with Homecoming classic as the climax of a memorable year was the rising up of the underdog Scotties to reduce the King Tornado to a spring zephyr. Baby Baird ripped behind the faultless blocking of the Maryville forwards to lead the 7-0 victory. The Chattanooga Moccasins battered Maryville's game lads in the next game and began the injury parade which marred the remainder of the season. Tennessee Teachers, with the aid of a five-year jinx, eked out victory by a lone tally. "Les" Rock and J. D. Hughes, nevertheless, did some great defensive work. Before a capacity Homecoming crowd on Wilson Field, Maryville rose to the occasion to defeat the Emory-Henry Wasps, 12-0. Maryville clicked smoothly defensively and offensively in one of the best spectacles of the season.

J. D. HUGHES

THE CAPTAIN

J. D. Hughes, Captain of Maryville's 1940 Highlanders, has gained a permanent place in the Maryville Hall of Fame. "Shooney" was an ideal Scotty in his rugged, fighting leadership.

At Cookeville, against a mighty new foe in T. P. I., the crippled Scotties, minus five regulars, were unable to cope with superior power, dropping the game by a 35-0 count. Against the Pioneers, the Scots broke loose and ripped and roared in a thrill-filled conference game in which the fans stood up calisthenic fashion and shrieked themselves hoarse. Morton, along with Hughes and Baird, behind a spirited line, scored in every period to win, 25-18. Cloninger, in spirit with the scrap, assisted from the bench in stopping a Pioneer to complete a wild and woolly afternoon. The Carson-Newman Eagles outscored Maryville in the final game, 27-13, to end the season.

Despite defeat, the Scotties' seniors showed their colors splendidly in their finale for old Maryville.

Captain J. D. Hughes climaxed four years of superb play this season, in which he served as battering ram and tackler extraordinary. The Highlanders will miss the power and spirit, next year, which made Hughes one of the most feared men in the conference. Co-Captain Scott Honaker also culminated a four-year position in the Maryville backfield. Scott's dependable punting and flashy play earned honors and respect rare for a small man. Ponyback Boydson Baird added more honor to the name of Baird this season as his flying cleats covered many a yard. Morton, with Baird, Honaker, and Hughes, rounds out the stellar senior backfield of the 1940 Highland eleven. Morton was a consistent ground-gainer for the Scots, adding defensive skill to his all-round ability. Making a comeback this year, George Garner is another senior who will be missed. In Coach Davis' forewall, Cragan, Duncan, and McCurry's absence will be keenly felt next year. Cragan, a transfer from quarter, showed versatility in filling the end position of last year's Captain Etheredge. "Deacon" Duncan, a midget guard, not only plugged his gap well, but harassed opposing secondary on almost every play. Big "Merc" McCurry, a mainstay at tackle, had his best year in three years of dependable work. McCurry was immovable on defense, and surprisingly fast and aggressive on offense.

HIGHLIGHTS

Stalwart of the line and one of the big factors in a successful 1941 season will be Captain-elect Cecil Tipton. Gaining conference honors this year, Tipton, as superb a charging tackle as Maryville has seen, leads the junior delegation.

Paired with "Tip" will be Co-Captain Norman Hooker at center. Although a light linesman, this lad gained recognition for breaking up the opposition and making a lion's share of the tackles. With Hooker and Frosh Overly, a big, dependable reserve, the center position will be strong in 1941. "Sport" Shelfer, sixty-minute end, played fine ball again this year, snaring numerous passes and sparking the squad with his Southern gab.

In replacing a backfield of seniors, lanky, loose-hipped Lloyd Taylor, out most of this season with injuries, and Jimmy Witt, dependable blocking back, will be the answer. Oliver Spears, sparkling little frosh passer and scatback, should also soothe Coach Honaker's headache. "Les" Rock, new to football this year, showed great promise in his speed and gameness. Cloninger and Murr clicked at guard in the Highland forewall. Both are freshmen, full of fight. Mitchell and Cunningham, along with big Red Rogerville, complete the list of lettermen. All three, while reserves this year, showed themselves ready for starting berths. Manager Campbell also should be commended for his able assistance to the 1940 Scotties.

BASKETBALL SEASON

The 1941 Basketball season showed the Scotties at top speed again on the hardwood. With smooth ball handling and inspired play under fire, the Scot quintet downed both Carson-Newman and L. M. U., their traditional rivals. In nineteen games this season, the Maryville lads rang up eleven victories against eight defeats, three of which were out of the Scot class.

The Honakermen started the regular season against Norman College, with a 32-22 decision over the new opponents; but the next three were dropped to such competition as Kentucky, Eastern Kentucky State, and Union. Starting out again, the Scotties showed flying colors to the King Tornado in a hard-fought 26-25 win which sparkled with keen defensive play. The Scotties swamped Western Carolina Teachers, Cumberland University and Hiwassee to even up their slow beginning. Proving the only team to remain undefeated by the fast-stepping Highlanders in the old Smoky Mountain Conference was East Tennessee Teachers. Maryville defeated all others including L. M. U., King, Carson-Newman, and Cumberland University.

Emory and Henry of Virginia also fell before the Scotty scourge.

Highlights of the '41 season were the invasion of Lincoln Memorial and the season finale with Carson-Newman. Dropping their initial tilt with L. M. U., this year's S. M. C. champs, the Scot quintet came from behind to overpower the Railsplitters 47-46, an almost impossible feat on the L. M. U. floor. In the rough and tumble game with the Eagles, Honaker's deceptive lads showed their class to close out the year with a 45-31 victory.

Three seniors and three frosh adorned the regular 1941 roster, a triad of midget seniors, as a matter of fact, and a triad of tall, beefy freshmen. Captain Boydson Baird led the Maryville five in one of his best years. His down-court gallops and scrappiness will be sorely missed, as well as his colorful play, which brightened every game. Brother Bill Baird, a four-year veteran and probably the best deceptive ball handler of the lot, ends his career on the boards this year with "Baby." Scotty Honaker, scoring some 125 points for the alma mater, hangs up his jersey also, showing four service bars to his credit. These mainstays can't be replaced easily, for they have put in some great ball-playing. Lillard, frosh star of the year, showed great potentialities, improving steadily with experience during the season. He led the Scotty scoring with nearly 200 points chalked up in his favor for the season total. Overly, another big frosh, showed promise at center and took second honors in goal making. The third of these formidable freshmen is Bowyer, the tallest of the outfit. He packed plenty of scoring punch through the season, too. Menning played good ball again this year, topping the reserve crop. Among these were Lloyd Taylor, who was stopped from regular play with a knee operation; Bill Sweeney, a fast, deceptive mid-get; and Saffell.

Maryville, out of Smoky Mountain competition for the first time, flaunted the Orange and Garnet in style for her old running mates, and looks forward to a colorful '42 season at the head of a newly-formed conference.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

The 1940 Highland track team under the guidance of Acting Coach Jim Hitch, captured the Smoky Mountain title for the fourth time. And although the cinder team dropped their state championship title to a needed University of Tennessee squad, the Scotties whipped up enough points to take a second place in the state meet, defeating such teams as Vanderbilt, Milligan, TPI, Sewanee, and Southwestern. In dual meets of 1940, the Highlanders humbled Chattanooga and LMU, while dropping meets to Tennessee and Davidson.

Captain Joe Etheredge was the outstanding track man of the year. He showed versatility in combining the century dash with the high jumping. At Chattanooga, Etheredge cleared the cross bar at 6 feet 2 inches to break unofficially his own state record. Another crack relay team, made up of Steakley, Procter, Lloyd, and 1941 Captain Bill Baird, churned cinders into enemy eyes, losing only one race during the season.

Other track stalwarts were Boydson Baird, Husk, Kent, Tipton, McCurry, Davies, Nicely, and Green.

BASEBALL

1940 Smoky Mountain Champions

In a slightly erratic season, the Maryville baseball nine vanquished all opposition to gain for the last time the Conference championship. The Scotties ran up an enviable record of thirteen victories and three losses.

The scoring power of Honakermen was one of the outstanding merits of the 1940 season. Captain "Nig" Wilburn, southpaw pitcher and outfielder, led the attack, with McGaha, Hughes, and Cragan completing the big end of the line-up.

Sensation of the season was the Highland drubbing of LMU in the final game. Leading the league at that time, the Railsplitters went down 20-8 under the booming bats of the Maryville team.

Playing big roles in the successful season were Shelfer, veteran backstop; Hooker, Short, and Rock of the pitching staff; Scotty Honaker and Headrick.

The 1941 State Champions

The Maryville wrestling team maintained their perennial leadership in the State this year, taking over all competitors in an undefeated season. This is the eleventh Tennessee State Championship for the Highland grunters.

Coach J. D. Davis built a great team in his first year at the helm, keeping up the brilliant record set by the late Coach Thrower. The Scot matmen set off at top pace, opening with a 36-0 shutout against Knoxville "Y," winning all but two matches by falls. With this warm-up, Maryville met their toughest opponent, Vanderbilt University, on the home mat, eking out a decisive 20-14 win. The following week the Highland laddies reduplicated the feat, dropping the Commodores 18-14 in the highlight of the season. Defeating the hapless boys from Knox "Y" a second time, the Scot rasslers then took undisputed State title on a 33-3 slaughter of the University of Tennessee. Maryville completed her schedule with a victory over Western Carolina State Teachers.

Four of the best wrestlers in Maryville's brilliant wrestling history culminated their days on the Maryville mat this year: Captain Wood Everett, Eval, Henschen, and Hahn.

Woody Everett, a 175-pounder, was again State champ, winning every match on a fall, popping his last opponent flat in forty seconds to break the all-time college record. Hal Henschen, heavyweight, showed aggressiveness and skill to gain an unbroken string of wins and another State championship. Crafty little 121-pounder, Phil Eval, matched Everett's record, a smooth slate of falls over opponents for the year. Completing four years of varsity competition, Clemmy Hahn at 165 showed smooth and powerful form to gain a perfect record with his fellow seniors.

"Mac" McDaniels, Justice, and Ross complete the list of lettermen, from which the Scotties expect big things next year.

WRESTLING

TENNIS TEAM

Smoky Mountain Champions

The Maryville Tennis team was undefeated in 1940, winning ten meets from the best schools in Tennessee. Smashing every conference team with ease, they won the championship hands down, adding victories over Tennessee and TPI. Morrow and Van Cise topped off by winning the State doubles crown.

The team was made up of Morrow, Van Cise, Akana, Pratt, Kidder, and Stevenson.

SWIMMING TEAM

The Highland swimming team completed an ambitious schedule this year, breaking several college records, and tumbling Tusculum, their greatest rivals. Coach Fishbach, confronted with a loss of eight lettermen, built a strong team of freshmen that looks forward to a great season next year. Lettermen are Cross, Lowry, D. Moore, Wilcox, Miller, and Wells.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

Last year the Freshman Girls' baseball team let down their braids and ran diamond rings around their bigger sisters to take the intramural championship. Team members were: June Stewart, Jean Stamp, Natalie Yelton, Becky Jones, Marguerite Taylor, Virginia M. Williams, Virginia Fuller, Josephine Gillette, Cornelia Jones, Mary Ruth Baker, Ann Halabrin, and Lois King.

GIRLS' SOCCER

The Junior-Seniors, however, bloomed out again this season and revealed their old form by clinching the soccer circuit with both hands behind their backs. Mae Persing, Bonnie Hayes, Marian Jenkins, Margaret Whaley, Vivian Moore, Berneice Tontz, Mildred Hester, Ada Summers, Bina Brown, Betty Pettry, Madge Evans, Anna Storey, and Dorothy Barber made up the team.

Playing many of their games before an appreciative audience as preliminaries to varsity tilts, the Junior-Senior combination also won the Girls' Basketball tournament. The team was composed of Bina Brown, Mae Persing, Madge Evans, Ada Summers, Anna Lee Storey, Marian Jenkins, Bonnie Hayes, Margaret Whaley, Vivian Moore, and Berneice Tontz.

Anna Lee Storey, Senior; "Willie" Williams, Sophomore, and Johnnye Gudel, Freshman, made the feathers fly in the Aerial Dart tournament, finishing first in their respective divisions.

INTRAMURAL ACTIVITY, 1940-41

Maryville College has considerably expanded and broadened its intramural activities during this college year. Up until this year, the student Y. M. C. A. had charge of the administration of such activities for the men of the college. However, wishing to increase the scope of the work being done, the College this year appointed Mr. George F. Fischbach, from the physical education staff, to direct the intramural program. Some idea of the organization is given.

Objectives of the department include:

1. The offering of a wide variety of activities balanced between vigorous and light exercise, team and individual sports to meet present interests and future needs.
2. The safeguarding of health by choice of activities, limiting participation, safety rules, good equipment, medical examinations and proper supervision.
3. The establishing of policies which will be of the greatest good and fairness to the greatest number by limiting participation to individuals below varsity caliber and limiting participation so that more may obtain success.
4. The belief that social relations and attitudes can be developed through intramural participation by upholding high standards of sportsmanship, providing good officials, fair dealing with all individuals and groups, and providing a large number of opportunities for leadership and cooperation and planning the program with the students.

It was necessary to organize a managerial system that would efficiently run the intramural program. Arthur Peterson is the Senior Manager of Intramural Activities. He is the man who sees that his large group of assistants do the work to which they are assigned. Under him he has the following managers: Junior managers, Curtis Wright and Percy Martin; sports managers, Arthur Bushing, Olson Pemberton, Oliver Van Cise, Robert Twitchell, John Schellenger, Gabriel Williamson, and Hal Lloyd, the publicity manager for the department. Then there is the "Y" Intramural Committee, composed of Vernon Lloyd, Allan Moore, and Stanley Menning, who work along with Mr. Fischbach.

The Choir Basketball Team brags about its esthetic uniformity; the All-Star football team about its athletic superiority. Both are boastworthy.

INTRAMURALS

A large number of awards will not be made this year, since there is a great deal of equipment needed to be purchased. However, an All-Year Trophy will be given to the individual scoring the most number of points during the college year. The next ten highest will be recognized for their achievement. It is hoped that a large number of awards can be made next year.

Statistics from the Intramural Office show that to this writing over two hundred students and faculty members have participated in the program. So far ten faculty members have participated. It is reasonable to believe that by the end of the school year almost 300 of the men of the college will have entered some phase of the program.

Intramural activities which have been concluded up to date are:

Football—With 121 participants; 10 teams; winner of college championship, the Tigers, independent team managed by Leroy McGaha; runner-up, Ministerial Association, managed by Alfred Davies.

Tennis—With 48 participants, 32 in singles and 8 doubles team; singles championship won by James Hedges; doubles championship won by Arthur Bushing and Wm. Hargrave; consolation championship won by Charles Foreman.

Volleyball—With 74 participants, 8 teams; championship won by Engineers (independent team); runner-up, Athenian.

Horseshoes (in progress)—With 40 participants; double elimination tournament; Baird brothers and Short brothers in finals at present writing.

Basketball (in progress)—With 10 teams, (6) independent and (4) club, 97 participants; to date Foul Balls have won first half in Independent League, Athenians have won first half in Club League.

Other activities on the Intramural program include:

Handball, table tennis, foul shoot, wrestling, swimming, track, golf, archery, softball, Sigma Delta Psi trials, Intramural Festival (March 1st).
